Background

Ms. Nowrouzi was a member of the Intellectual Property Law Association and the Benjamin Franklin Inn of Court. While attending Rutgers, Ms. Nowrouzi worked as an intern at the Camden Center for Law and Social Justice, where she gained valuable counseling and trial experience. She worked as a professor's assistant in the biological lab department of the University of Maryland where she gained experience in plant physiology, anatomy and physiology, and genetics. In addition to counseling clients in various aspects of patent portfolio management, Ms. Nowrouzi specializes in design patents. Ms. Nowrouzi's design patent practice includes all aspects of patent prosecution, enforcement, and strategic portfolio management of design patent rights.

Ms. Nowrouzi is an active member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association and the Iranian American Bar Association. She also enjoys working with charitable organizations in the Maryland and DC area as a volunteer including Children's Inn at NIH and Bethesda Cares.
